

Promises delivered at auction!

Thanks to the incredible generosity of local companies and individuals, and a room full of enthusiastic people who joined us for a fun filled evening on Friday 17 November —a staggering £10,000 was raised. This was Y Tŵr's very first auction which, remarkably, had attracted over 100 offers of varied and appealing items for the catalogue within days, reflecting the community's goodwill. Many businesses and individuals have already expressed interest in contributing towards Y Tŵr's next auction which will be held around the same time again next year. If you wish to contribute an item, please contact us. We are extremely grateful to John the Auctioneer for giving his time, and to all the volunteers who made the evening such a success. As Carys Owen, Chair of Menter Y Tŵr, said: "In such financially challenging times, the support we've received means the world to us. Every contribution brings us one step closer to opening the doors."

Bingo: The Y Tŵr Bingo Night has become a highlight on the Pwllheli social calendar, thanks to the dedication of Karen Rees Roberts, owner of Salon Karalyns Pwllheli, and her family. Once again, the evening was filled with fun and laughter — and raised a fantastic £390 for the Y Tŵr. Thank you Karen for your continued support and hard work. Each event makes such a difference.

Cor y Brythoniaid Concert Raffle: A big thank you to everyone who bought a raffle ticket during the fabulous Cor y Brythoniaid concert in neuadd Dwyfor. £329 was collected. Thank you to Sian, Nia Llew, Sian Em and Carol for organising the raffle.

Welcome Dyddgu

Dyddgu Mair Williams

A familiar and very popular person in Pen Llyn, it is a pleasure to welcome Dyddgu and her extensive experience and expertise in community work, as a member of the team. "I have just started working with Menter Y Tŵr as a Income and Development Consultant. There are exciting times ahead and I look forward to organising and holding events in the bar and the big function room on the ground floor of Y Tŵr. A few things have already been arranged and more in the pipeline. Y Tŵr will be home to Santa's grotto during Hwyl yr Ŵyl in Pwllheli at the end of November, and the bar will also be open along with a few stalls. Events as part of the Stwna project have also been organised, and an evening of Carol singing will be held before Christmas. On 24 January on the eve of St Dwynwen local singers John ac Alun and their band will perform in Y Tŵr for the first time in many years. To celebrate St David's Day Phill Jones and his band will be entertaining us on 28 February, There is much more to come, so keep an eye out on social media and our monthly newsletters.

Hwyl yr Ŵyl

Menter y Tŵr is proud to be playing a key role in Hwyl yr Ŵyl, Pwllheli's much-loved Christmas festival once again. The event aligns perfectly with Menter y Tŵr's mission to revitalise the town and promote positive, diverse social activity. Jane Watkinson, one of the festival organisers, said: "This year's Hwyl yr Ŵyl brings the community together and celebrates the incredible talents we have here in Gwynedd. We have been amazed by the support from local businesses and organisations. There is a real sense of positive energy building in Pwllheli, and it is a pleasure to work alongside others who are equally passionate about getting the town back on its feet. This treasure of a town deserves care, attention, and the very best celebrations. A heartfelt thank you to everyone for their support — we look forward to welcoming you for a weekend full of fun and entertainment."
